

Important Notice: Beware of Fake Certificates

It has come to our attention that some individuals are misusing the name of EVCSM to issue their own unauthorized and fake certificates. We would like to make it very clear that these certificates are completely fake and illegal. EVCSM is not responsible for any certificates that have been falsely created or fraudulently issued in our name.

● If you come across any such certificate, please email us immediately for verification at:
✉ info@evcsm.in

● Important Points to Note:

- Always verify certificates through our official channel before accepting them as valid.
- EVCSM holds no liability for any losses or damages arising from the use of fake certificates.
- If you believe that you have been a victim of such fraudulent activities, you are strongly advised to immediately approach the nearest law enforcement authorities for appropriate action.

We are committed to maintaining the integrity and authenticity of our certification process. Thank you for your cooperation.

- Team EVCSM
